Tribal Spotlight

In spring time our elders tell us that it is a very important time of the year for their people. To the Quapaw people, these are signs that the world around us is coming back to life, signaling that we have made it through another winter.

In the Quapaw language, this time of year is referred to as pe-ta-de ("peh-TAH-deh") and the Quapaw people traditionally saw this time as marking the beginning of a new year.

FIRE AND ICE

FACIAL AND MASSAGE

APRIL 2019 SPECIAL

Get instant visible results with this resurfacing facial that softens skin, reduces fine lines and wrinkles, and encourages cellular renewal. This 50 minute service includes a hot, stimulating masque to help increase blood flow and circulation. The warming sensation is followed by a cold treatment with cooling products to reduce inflammation and swelling in the skin, resulting in a complexion that simply glows. We finish out this results driven and relaxing service with a 20 minute head, neck and shoulder massage.
