Tribal Spotlight

Tall Chief or Louis Angel was born between Cherry Creek and Labette Creek on the Neosho River in what is present day Kansas around 1840. Most of the Quapaw tribe lived in this area at that time. His father was the hereditary Chief, Kah-hi-kah te-dah or Lame Chief and his mother was Mi-ska na-zhe.

Tall Chief became Chief after his father died in 1874. He had an outstanding memory and could remember the names and relationships of practically all the members of the Quapaw tribe existing within the last hundred years. His testimony was much sought after in territorial days, after the allotments had been made, for the purpose of determining the heirs of deceased allottees. He was married many times, had many children, but only his daughter, Mary Maude Angel-Tallchief survived.

Tall Chief died August 26, 1918 and is buried on his allotment near Spring River.
