Tribal Spotlight

The Quapaw Warrior

At the main entrance to the hotel, there is a huge etching of a Quapaw warrior. The original portrait of this etching was done by Mr. Charles Banks Wilson, husband of Quapaw tribal member Edna McKibben Wilson.

Historically, when our warriors went to war or rode out to meet the enemy, this is how they would appear. Their presence was to be fierce and ominous; shown by the war club and spear that the warrior carries. He is shown with symbols that have a special meaning to him personally, and also often included were tribal symbols, as the Quapaw swirl on the original portrait.
